About us:

“Neelakash” – is a complete intervention unit for children and adult with autism spectrum disorder (ASD) and other special needs. We offer all-round care, guidance, teaching, and training to cater to our students' special needs with an aim to make their lives Self sufficient, Respectful & Independent.

“Neel” or blue is the color of “Autism”. Blue is also the color of “Akash” or the sky, which is limitless. At “Neelakash” we work relentlessly to find out and nurture the talents of children and adults with autism and other special needs to transform them from limited to limitless. We have proved, autism can be defeated by proper motivation, support, love, and care.

VISION & MISSION

- Vision

To build an inclusive community where everyone is part of it, not apart from it

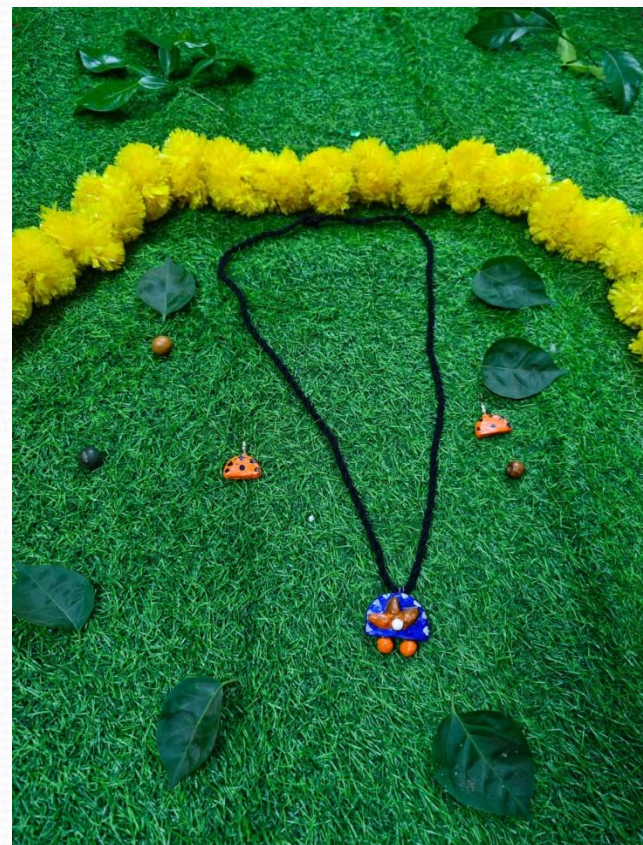

- Mission

To working in collaboration with people with special needs to develop their potential to the fullest so they can be self-standing and independent.
